

About

Digital assets are definitely one of the most fascinating upcoming asset classes of our time. The current macroeconomic environment requires a diversification in non-correlated and untapped performance pools. However, it is still cumbersome to get a professional, regulated, and bankable access to this new asset class.

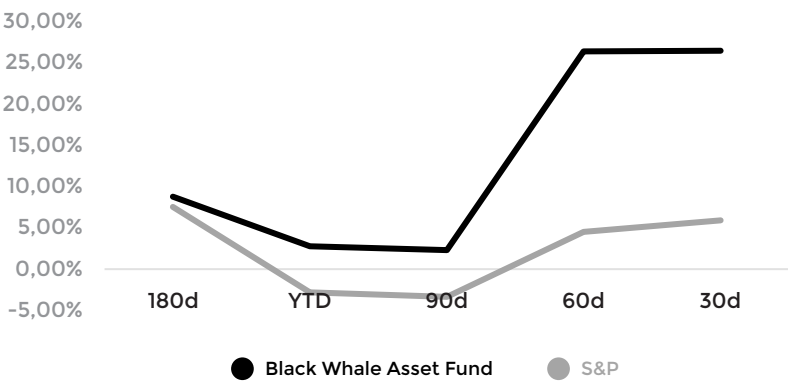

Fund & Investments Objective

The fund is a simple, smart and convenient way to get exposure to bitcoin and Ethereum among others. It will be managed by a dedicated portfolio manager in order to provide quick and secure access to those crypto assets while removing the burden of buying and safekeeping coins. The investment objective is to generate mid to long-term capital growth following a discretionary approach with predefined criteria.

Key Benefits

- Diversification
- Regulated Custodian
- Professional asset manager
- Gain market exposure

Portfolio Manager Market View

The fund will focus on two main crypto assets: BTC and ETH. We think that the continuous massive adoption of the BTC worldwide and with less than 2 million left to be mined (21M total supply with a decreasing issuing rate (50% every 210,00 blocks or 4 years approx. "HALVING")), and with ETH close to announce what is called "the merge", that will mark the end of proof-of-work (PoW) for Ethereum, in favor of the proof-of- stake (PoS) mechanism, we will face a positive long run trend.
